

What is a Wisconsin Registered Interior Designer (WRID) and who can become a WRID?

A Wisconsin Registered Interior Designer is an interior designer who has voluntarily registered with the state of WI. In order to become a registered interior designer, one must have the qualifications to take and pass the NCIDQ exam. Then one is eligible to apply to become a WRID.